

Weelz Driving School

Agreement of Terms and Conditions

Your Weelz instructor will always aim to give you the very best service and the highest quality driving instruction. You can expect to receive nothing but the very best from us, and it's important that you agree to be as fair with your Weelz instructor as we are with you. Please take the time to read through these terms and conditions, print the document, sign it and bring it with you for your Weelz instructor to keep with your file

What you can expect from us:

1. Your Weelz Instructor will agree to provide you with a step-by-step training course tailored to your abilities and your requirements
2. Your Instructor will provide you with professional advice regarding study materials for your Theory and Practical tests
3. Your Instructor will be highly trained and will display an official DSA identification card in the windscreen during your lessons
4. Your Instructor will fully adhere to the DSA's Code of Conduct. This means that they will behave in a professional manner at all times
5. Your Instructor will be patient and understanding, recognising that you are an individual with unique needs and requirements. You will be allowed to progress at your own rate, and you can expect the full help and support of your Weelz instructor each and every step of the way
6. The training car supplied will be kept in a roadworthy, safe and legal condition for you to use during lessons. Smoking will not be allowed in the car under any circumstances and the car will be maintained to allow you to take your lessons in comfort
7. Each of your lessons will last a minimum of one hour, and you will be the only student in the car. Your Instructor will not drop off or collect other students during your lessons under any circumstances, without your prior knowledge and consent
8. If your Weelz instructor finds it necessary to cancel your lesson, they will make every effort to give you at least 24 hours notice, and you are asked to accept that such cancellations may occur in the event of unforeseen circumstances such as illness or vehicle breakdown
9. Your Weelz Instructor will always aim to be on time for your lessons, although you are asked to accept that traffic conditions and unforeseen circumstances may sometimes prevent this. In these circumstances your instructor will attempt to contact and inform you, and the training time lost will be added on to added on to either the current lesson or a subsequent training session

What we expect from you:

1. You must act in an appropriate and responsible manner during your training sessions. Your Instructor will terminate a training period, lesson or complete course if they deem that you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs at any time during a lesson and/or display inappropriate or unacceptable behaviour toward either the instructor and/or other road users
2. The Instructor reserves the right to terminate all tuition if you continuously or regularly cancel appointments
3. You are responsible for ensuring that payment for your training sessions is made to the instructor, as per the fees arranged for you. You are also responsible for the payment of any fees charged by the Driving Standards Agency (DSA) for Theory and Practical Driving Tests
4. The Instructor reserves the right to withdraw the training vehicle for a practical driving test if in their opinion you are driving in a manner they consider to be a potential danger to yourself, the instructor, any other road user or a DSA Examiner
5. You must discuss booking practical driving tests with the Instructor and agree dates and times prior to booking a test with the DSA. The Instructor reserves the right to refuse the you the use of the training vehicle for tests if a booking is made without the agreement of the Instructor
6. You must be in possession of a current provisional, full or other UK driving licence entitling you to drive the training vehicle, and must produce your licence to the Instructor whenever you are asked to do so
7. If you have to cancel an appointment for any reason other than a medical emergency, the Instructor requires 48 hours notice. If you fail to adhere to this, the Instructor will charge you the full amount of the training period or lesson that was booked for you
8. You must contact your Instructor as soon as possible if there any changes to your pick up or drop off point

By signing this Agreement of Terms and Conditions document, you confirm that there are no physical or other disabilities or impediment affecting your ability to drive and that no medication or other treatment is prescribed to you or being taken by you which may impair or otherwise affect your ability to drive or that such information has been disclosed to the instructor and the DVLA. The instructor may require further information as necessary to ensure that training may take place. I agree to the Terms and Conditions as laid out above and confirm that I am over 18 years of age
